..HOW TO USE..

The screenshot shows the HeinOnline homepage with several callouts explaining its features:

- 7: The home button (HeinOnline logo) will return users to the Welcome Page from anywhere in HeinOnline.
- 8: The main search bar, which remains stationary and available on all pages in HeinOnline, has four search options under separate tabs: full text, citation, catalog, and case law. It includes a search input field and a magnifying glass icon.
- 9: Click Advanced Search from the Full Text or Catalog search tabs to access additional search fields and the ability to narrow searches by title and date ranges.
- 10: The options bar on the upper right side of the screen offers access to MyHein and a "What's New" area where users can view recent blog posts, download monthly content release CSVs, and view new content by library. Users can also connect with HeinOnline via social media and view account information.

The page also displays a list of databases under "Browse Databases by Name":

- Law Journal Library
- English Reports
- Foreign & International Law Resources Database
- Legal Classics
- Revised Statutes of Canada

Other visible elements include the "MyHein", "What's New", "Help", "Connect", and "Account" navigation links, and a "Email Us" button.

SEARCHING IN HEINONLIE

The screenshot shows the Heinonline search interface. At the top, there are tabs for 'Full Text', 'Citation', 'Catalog', and 'Case Law'. Below these is a search bar with the placeholder text 'Search All Databases...'. To the right of the search bar are two dropdown menus: 'Advanced Search' and 'Search Help'. Below the search bar are several input fields: 'Title', 'Author', 'Full Text', 'Date: (YYYY)', and 'To: (YYYY)'. There are also 'AND' buttons between the 'Title' and 'Author' fields, and between the 'Author' and 'Full Text' fields. A red dashed box highlights the 'Advanced Search' dropdown menu, with a red arrow pointing to a blue circle containing the number '1'. Another red dashed box highlights the 'Search Help' dropdown menu, with a red arrow pointing to a blue circle containing the number '13'. A red dashed box highlights the 'Add field' button, with a red arrow pointing to a blue circle containing the numbers '1' and '2'. A red dashed box highlights the 'Search' button, with a red arrow pointing to a blue circle containing the numbers '1' and '1'. A red dashed box highlights the 'Advanced Search Syntax' link, with a red arrow pointing to a blue circle containing the numbers '1' and '1'. A red dashed box highlights the 'Add up to six search fields' text, with a red arrow pointing to a blue circle containing the numbers '1' and '2'.

- Use the Full Text search tab from the Welcome Page to search across all subscribed databases, including both full text and metadata of all documents.
- Click Advanced Search to access multiple search fields and pre-select a date range; click Search Help to produce a list of the most commonly used search syntax.

Search Syntax

For more information and tips please review our Advanced Search Syntax Guide

Note that all Boolean operators must use capital letters.

AND	to search for multiple terms i.e. <code>evidence AND admissibility</code> will produce documents that contain both terms.
OR	to search for either one of a pair of similar terms i.e. <code>brief OR evidence</code> will produce documents that contain either of these terms
NOT	to exclude a term from a search i.e. <code>evidence NOT briefs</code> will exclude every search result containing the word "briefs"
" "	use quotes to search for a phrase i.e. <code>"love canal"</code> will search for documents containing the exact phrase "love canal"
()	to search grouped clauses to form sub queries i.e. <code>(watershed OR "water rights") AND planning</code> will produce documents that contain either watershed or water rights and planning
~	to search for words within a particular proximity of each other i.e. <code>"watershed planning"~10</code> will search for watershed within 10 words of planning
?	to search for words where there may be variations of the word that you want included in your search i.e. <code>te?t</code> will produce documents that contain text or test
*	to search for a word with multiple character differences i.e. <code>brief*</code> will return searches with the words brief, briefs, and briefed
w/# or /#	to search for two words within a set proximity of one another, i.e. <code>jury w/5 discrimination</code> or <code>jury /5 discrimination</code>
w/s or /s	to search for two words within a sentence, i.e. <code>jury w/s discrimination</code> or <code>jury /s discrimination</code>
w/p or /p	to search for two words within a paragraph, i.e. <code>jury w/p discrimination</code> or <code>jury /p discrimination</code>
w/seg or /seg	to search for two words within a segment, i.e. <code>jury w/seg discrimination</code> or <code>jury /seg discrimination</code>

Wallace FRITZ et al., Respondents, v.
Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. WARTHEN et al., and Robert Steele, et al., Appellants.

Nos. 43675, 43781.

Supreme Court of Minnesota.

Nov. 30, 1973.

Syllabus by the Court

1. A covenant in a lease for payment of rent and the covenants of habitability of residential premises imposed by Minn.St. 504.18, subd. 1, are mutually dependent rather than independent, and a breach of the statutory covenants of habitability may be asserted as a defense in an unlawful detainer action for nonpayment of rent.

2. Abandonment of the premises is a prerequisite to the assertion of constructive or partial constructive eviction as a defense in an unlawful detainer action for nonpayment of rent.
